"Anticipation"

from Fenton

STRICT LIMIT OF 7500

“ANTICIPATION”

Childhood's greatest fantasy — watching Santa arrive pulled by eight tiny reindeer. These adorable children, waiting expectantly for the jolly gentleman to appear, bring back the poignant excitement of Christmas. Titled “Anticipation”, it is the first of four editions in Fenton's Christmas Fantasy series.

The scene was designed by Diane Johnson who has been associated with Fenton for the past eight years. Having created many of Fenton's most popular handpainted patterns, Diane has now turned her attention to creating collectibles. Utilizing her favorite subject, children, she has captured a special moment shared by each of us. Each piece is limited to 7500, numbered, gift-boxed and signed by the artist who painted it.
