Mary Gregory

The distinctive Mary Gregory art of design on Cranberry remains our top collectible category. This exceptional treatment, with its unique shading and raised opaque detail, makes it a challenge to produce. Stacy Williams developed three new designs for this year's collection - "Good Boy" depicts the unconditional love between a boy and his dog. An elegantly dressed golfer from the 1920s takes a "Vintage Stroke" during her afternoon round while a charming school girl makes a "Special Delivery" to the local post office. Our "Daydreaming" design from 1996 completes this year's limited edition series.

Our daisy perfume features pansy pink petals on a crisp sky of Blue Topaz and topped with a stylish feather stopper. A border of petite rosebuds, encased with a double mauve band, surrounds the round perfume of Topaz Opalescent glass with a classic tall stopper. Pink Chiffon provides a soft canvas for our heart perfume featuring a graceful butterfly floating towards a matching spring blossom.
