Do You Love Glass?

A Word from the Publisher

Ten years ago, my fascination with glass led me to provide a magazine for others like myself—people who collect or who just enjoy looking at glass and learning about it. Over the years, GCD has been America's premier magazine for collectible glass enthusiasts.

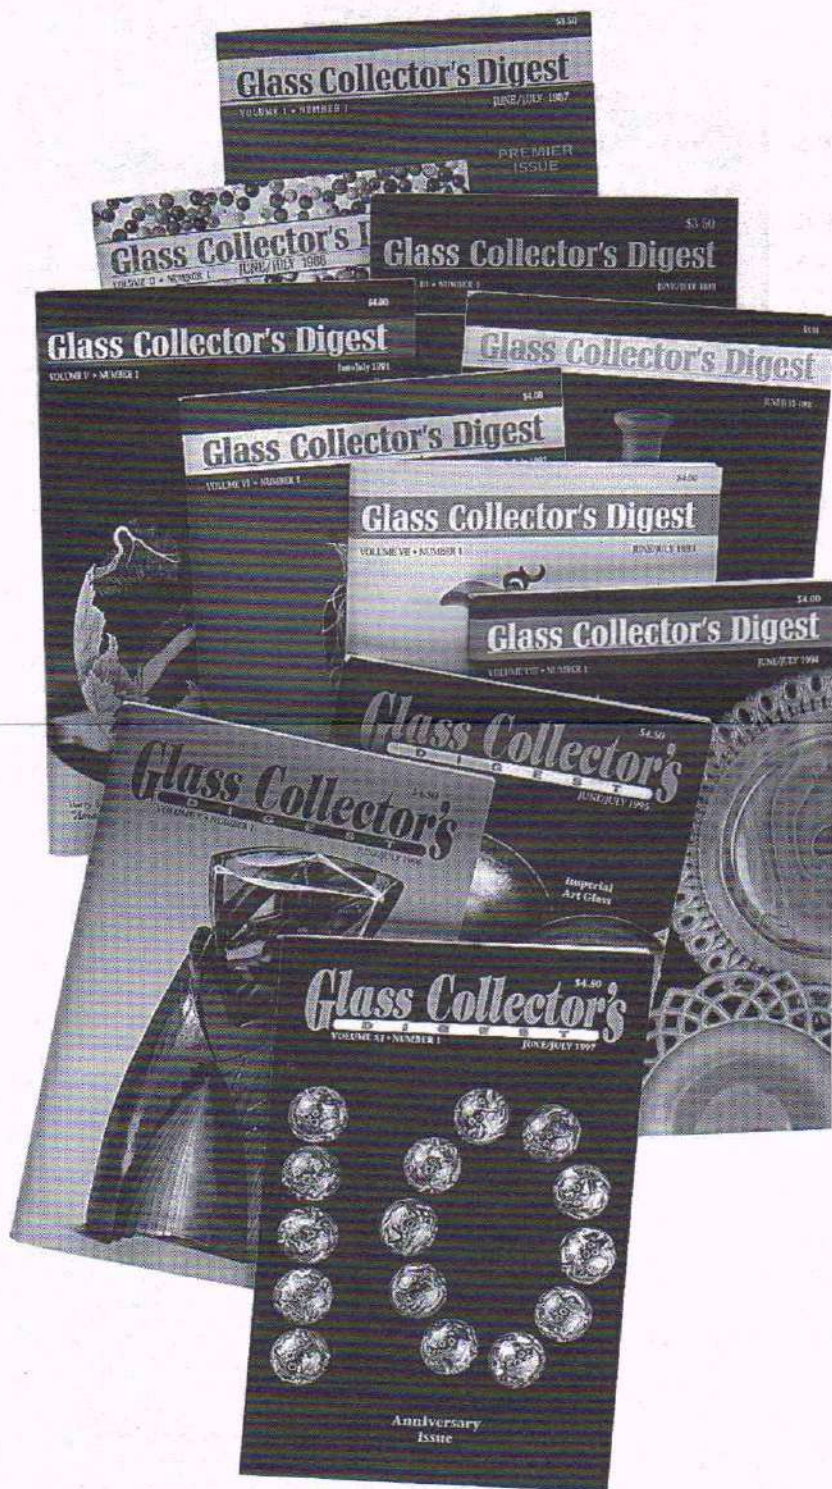

We've received many letters from subscribers who thank us for the well-written articles, beautiful color photos, solid research and the dash of humor found in every issue. The positive response convinces me that glass collectors have a real hunger for information—a need we meet in every single issue.

Glass Collector's Digest is the only magazine in America that covers all types of collectible glass . . . and which does so in color. Whether your interest is pattern glass, cut glass, art glass, carnival glass, depression glass, contemporary glass, bottles, or novelties, you'll enjoy the stimulating articles in each issue.

Glass Collector's Digest is not only written for the glass collector but we regularly include stories about collectors, because people who collect glass are as interesting as the glass itself.

A year's subscription to Glass Collector's Digest brings to your doorstep over 600 pages of information and thousands of pieces of glass in color—all for the nominal cost of $22.00 per year. We're so sure that our magazine pays for itself that we will refund your money on all unmailed copies throughout the life of the subscription.

Unlike most magazines that are outdated within a few days of publication, Glass Collector's Digest is an invaluable resource for years to come. That's why we offer all of our back issues for sale at $5.00 each for 1-3 copies (postage paid). Call for additional quantity discounts. We also have a complete subject index for all ten years we have been publishing this magazine. The index is $9.95 each (postage paid). Handsome library cases in which to store your back issues (holds six issues) are available for $8.50 each postage paid.
