

Christmas Fantasy 1984 "Expectation"

from Fenton

STRICT LIMIT OF 7500

“EXPECTATION”

A trusting child peeks up the fireplace to see if Santa is on his way.

The wonder of young belief is tenderly portrayed in Expectation, the second of four editions in Fenton's Christmas Fantasy Series. A child's delight in preparing for the jolly elf brings each of us a treasured moment.

The scene was designed by Diane Johnson who has been associated with Fenton for the past nine years. Having created many of Fenton's most popular handpainted patterns, Diane has now turned her attention to creating collectibles. Utilizing her favorite subject, children, she has captured a special moment shared by each of us. Each piece is limited to 7500, numbered, gift-boxed and signed by the artist who painted it.
