

1997 CHRISTMAS SUPPLEMENT

LIMITED EDITION SANTA AND ANGELS

Combining the best of two worlds, Fenton creates authentic handmade figurines which are then handpainted in today's motifs with touches of 22k gold. Two sizes of angels -- in totally new patterns designed by Robin Spindler -- will grace your holiday displays or collectibles cabinet. And, brand new for 1997, an "Olde World" Santa is painted to reflect velvet and ermine. Designed by Martha Reynolds and limited to 3750 pieces.

RUBY

Rich, Warm, Beautiful. Ruby requires an extra firing to coax the deep gem color from its depths. When a piece is first made it is a golden color. It is then reheated or struck (as we call it in glass-making terms) and the ruby color appears.

THE AMERICAN CHRISTMAS TREE

Handmade Christmas trees in four colors with 22k gold plated cardinals nestled in their branches. Each Christmas Tree is given snowy accents by hand applying crushed glass and paint. Add the musical base which carries an 18 note Sankyo movement playing "O Christmas Tree" and the equally nice wood lighted base for a very special gift.

FENTON

Above is Jon's original artwork for the entire grouping. Your set will be complete in four Christmas seasons -- next edition will include the three Wise Men.

Nativity Set

1st Edition 1997

The ultimate Christmas Figurines, our Nativity set debuts with Fenton's 1st Edition -- the Holy Family in opal glass, washed with soft, draping colors. Small highlights of 22k gold bring sparkle and richness to the set sculpted by Fenton designer Jon Saffell. A sense of quiet dignity unites the entire grouping.

Designer Jon Saffell sculpts the figures in clay and then plaster before they are made into a mould.

Each grouping comes in a specially designed presentation box which serves to display the pieces while protecting them from dust.
