CRANBERRY PALESCENT

This highly collectible glass was first developed during the Golden Age of Glass between 1860 and 1900. Fenton re-created the formula in 1936 and we continue to offer new ideas in traditional patterns. These patterns are created by covering gold ruby with French Opalescent and placing the molten glass into carved moulds.

RUBY

Rich, Warm, Beautiful. Ruby requires an extra firing to coax the deep gem color from its depths. When a piece is first made it is a golden color called amberina. It is then reheated or struck (as we call it in glassmaking terms) and the ruby color appears. Traditionally a top-seller, it's also perfect for 40th anniversaries, Christmas, and of course, Valentine's Day.

LANGUAGE OF LOVE . . . AN ANNIVERSARY GIFT WITH A STORY TO TELL.

Fenton improves on a long-time favorite by updating the "Language of Love" Anniversary grouping for 1997. This new version continues the story of Victorian's speaking with flowers - - each piece is accompanied by a brochure illustrating the meaning of the various flowers used (see next page for actual brochure copy). Our design incorporates sparkly ice (ground glass for texture and dimension) with 22k yellow and white gold lettering. Your anniversary gift will be treasured for years to come.

LANGUAGE OF LOVE

Sentimental Victorians shared their deepest feelings in a special language of flowers. Each known flower had its own meaning in this delicate art of communication. A young man would send a bouquet of jonquils if he desired "a return on affection." The lady might respond with snowdrops indicating "hope", or red tulips "declaring love." If she wasn't pleased with the suitor, yellow tulips would tell him it was "hopeless love."

"The Language of Love" revives this beautiful tradition in a loving Anniversary message. Each of the flowers entwine to tell a story: "The Rose represents love. Blue Violets mean Faithfulness while the Dogwood reflects the durability of a wonderful marriage. The Forget-me-nots remind us that True Love is everlasting."

"This wreath of love was created to represent the enduring strength in your marriage and is given to celebrate the day you were wed.

SLIPPERS

Fenton designer, Jon Saffel, was asked to create a totally new slipper for 1997. Using the "kitten in the slipper" idea, Jon has created the most gorgeous slipper we've produced for years. Graceful lines enhance the slipper shape and emphasize the kitten's head and front paws emerging from inside the shoe. In this familiar playful pose, Jon's kitten will strike a chord with slipper collectors and cat collectors alike. In Dusty Rose and Sea Mist, Jon's slipper adds appeal to Fenton's updated slipper assortment.

FGO56 Display Stand 5" Slippers

the Legend of the Secret Slipper

Knights of yore returned from the crusades bearing wonderful gifts for their loved ones. Highly valued among these were the beautifully-decorated "Secret Slippers" with their long and pointed upturned toes. Because the slippers had magical powers to ward off evil and bring great happiness, they were given as tokens of the highest esteem to very special people. Fenton revives this legend through its handmade glass slipper. As the knights of long ago followed a lofty code of conduct, Fenton glassmakers follow a tradition of quality craftsmanship in every secret slipper created.

The Pineapple was a symbol of welcome in the Americas long before Columbus arrived in 1492. West Indians placed pineapple tops near the entrance of their huts to indicate that strangers were welcome.

The Spanish took the pineapple symbol of hospitality back to Spain where it became popular and quickly spread to England. English colonists who settled in America in the 1700's built their homes with carved pineapples over the doorways and on the gateposts, thereby bringing this symbol of welcome back home where the tradition continues today.
