FENTON

SPRING 1997

JEWELRY SET

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever..." and now you can carry your favorite Fenton collectible with you. You'll always be proud of the quality and craftsmanship which created this eye-catching limited edition pendant. The silver mounting and chain were created for Fenton by Margarita de Santis who has designed jewelry for the U.S. and European markets for over 20 years. The intricate mounting and chain are antiqued sterling silver. Each pendant is pressed in Champagne glass and iridized, then reheated to a satin finish. Each is numbered and comes with its own keepsake box.

BURMESE

Burmese glass is the celebration of the glassmaker's art. Infused with pure gold, the creamy base color shades to rose when carefully reheated. Robin Spindler heightened the beauty of the matte glass by designing a pattern with sparkling gold and ice.

ANIMALS & BOXES

FOLK ART ANIMALS

Fenton's top-selling Folk Art collectibles are back for '97 -- in all new colors and decorative patterns. Designed to coordinate with today's top colors, these collectibles also stand alone as lovely works of art. Designed by Robin Spindler, each shape requires air brushing, handpainting and hand rubbed gilding. Limited to sales through 3/31/97.

PASTEL ANIMALS & BOXES

"Don't count your chickens until they're hatched." "Don't put all your eggs in one basket." "Variety is the spice of life." What more can we say? Fenton's country Easter collection is, like any old saying, everlasting.
