2006 CHRISTMAS

Winter Wonderland on Aquamarine

The serene tones of iridized Aquamarine Opalescent glass are the perfect canvas for Kim Barley's latest handpainted design, sure to evoke memories of winter's beauty as depicted in favorite fairy tales. Gaze beyond a cluster of sweet grapes left on the vine and behold ... a Winter Wonderland!

The raised crystal ice used in Kim's design creates sparkling texture and adds remarkable depth to a breathtaking scene. Winter Wonderland will capture the imagination of collectors everywhere. Eight different items—ranging from a vase to figurines—offer many choices for decorating or as gifts. The covered Candy Box is a new design by sculptor Suzi Whitaker.

A brand new sculpture from Suzi Whitaker, our Snow Angel will become a family heirloom to be displayed with pride. Her fur-trimmed robe recalls the hue of blue sky in winter, and Alpine-style scrollwork in the color of rich chocolate further adorns the robe.

Could snow be pink and blue? In childhood fantasies and Fenton glass, the answer is "Yes!" Our Blue Burmese glass creates an especially warm glow in the frosty blue of the Snowman Fairy Light, and the Snowman and Snowlady figurines bask in its reflection. All feature Kim Barley's iced snowflake decoration along with her detailed warm winter woollies -knitted scarf, shawl and mittens!

Canaan Valley

The picturesque Canaan Valley of West Virginia is celebrated once again for Christmas 2006. Ice-covered trees and frosty woodlands come to life in this popular handpainted motif. Designer Robin Spindler's talent finds expression on six items—all new for this year! The Blue Jay is a new mould designed by Fenton sculptor Suzi Whitaker.

Each Canaan Valley item features the West Virginia state bird, a bright red male Cardinal, within the design. This alert fellow continues to seek seeds, as he forages along the ground amidst the winter grandeur of Canaan Valley.

"Wheatberry" on Autumn Gold

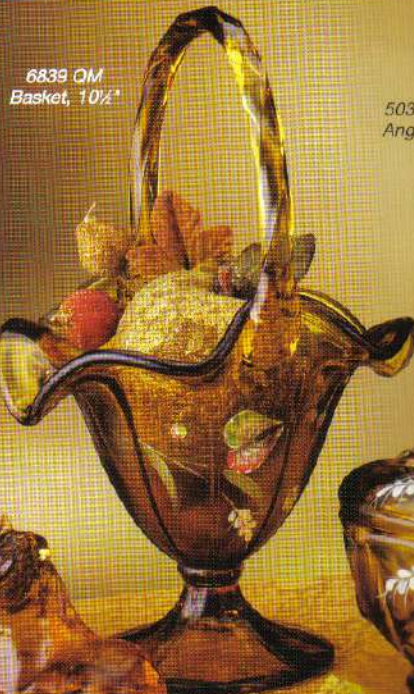

Introduced in 2005, Frances Burton's Wheatberry on Autumn Gold quickly became our "best ever" decorated pattern for Fall. Her handpainted motif combines leaves, berries and wheat in an elegant yet vibrant design. We're pleased to offer new additions to this beautiful grouping. The Shoe is a new mould designed by Jon Saffell.

Among the new selections in Autumn Gold are the Two-way Votive and the beautiful Horse (designed by Suzi Whitaker), which is offered for the first time.

Limited Edition Angel and Santa

Our Medieval Santa in Burmese glass features a stylized Jacobean floral motif created by Stacy Williams. Santa's robe is trimmed with glittered fur, making him "a right jolly old elf!"

Also new for 2006 is a "little sister" to our Winter Angel introduced last year (the best selling angel in our history!). Blushing Burmese glass is graced with a handpainted floral and 22k gold accents designed by Kim Barley. A handpainted, heart-shaped pendant in 22k gold completes this exquisite piece.

Vivid and vibrant, timeless Ruby is a classic glass color, and Fenton does it best. Our assortment offers functional pieces as well as gifts for those nearest and dearest to you and yours. The perky Rooster, new for 2006, was designed by sculptor Suzi Whitaker. He's perfect for decor featuring a French Country look or in any warm home.

"Gilded Harvest" on Ruby

Designed by Frances Burton, our new Gilded Harvest decoration on Ruby glass employs textured paints over 22k gold, a technique that provides remarkable depth. A golden pear and purple plum combine with autumn leaves in a splendid still life creation.

Christmas Trees

We surely agree that the Christmas tree is the very centerpiece of the American holiday celebration. Fenton continues the tradition with trees in four different colors, including iridized Aquamarine, our newest hue. Suzi Whitaker designed a cute gingerbread ornament for six of the American Christmas trees.
