Dear Friends of Fenton Art Glass,

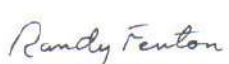

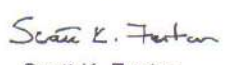

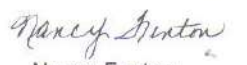

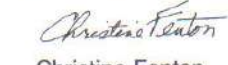

The year 2007 was very difficult for our century-old family business located in Williamstown, West Virginia. On August 9th of last year we announced the wind down of our company . . . it was a very traumatic day. Half of our salaried staff was let go as we saw no feasible options other than to close the business. But, as a result of the tremendous response we received from our customers, we have been able to reorganize the business and continue making glass right here in West Virginia under the Fenton U.S.A brand. The Fenton family is still majority owner and continues to manage the business. Nothing has changed in this respect.

Our ability to continue operations is clearly a result of overwhelming sales support from thousands of collectors and dedicated Fenton dealers across the USA. The unexpected "tidal wave" of orders last September provided us some extra time to implement a number of cost savings changes. We have improved our efficiencies without sacrificing quality or design. Although we are not out of the woods yet we have made good progress on our financial recovery, but success will require continued support from our dedicated collectors and dealers, and continued improvements at our factory in West Virginia.

Even with all our changes over the past year, we still continue to introduce a large number of new designs. New artists: Frank Workman, Kelsey Murphy and Robert Bomkamp, and Michelle Kibbe have headlined our latest introductions along with Dave Fetty and Kim Barley who continue to create stunning designs for our collectors. Enclosed you will find a color illustration of our latest offering, Christmas 2008. This collection includes more than 100 new pieces of Fenton Art Glass. All handcrafted in the U.S.A. at our facility in Williamstown, West Virginia and bearing the new Fenton USA logo which includes the letters USA embossed in the glass.

One of the new aspects of our sales process is that the products are offered to our dealers for only a limited amount of time. In order to ensure your dealer has the product you want, we encourage you to contact your local Fenton dealer immediately if you wish to have one of the Christmas 2008 items. We encourage you to expand your collection, accent your favorite room in the house, preorder a special gift for Christmas or just spoil yourself. No matter the occasion, for over 103 years, Fenton Art Glass has added color and life to homes all over the world. Our goal is to continue a family business legacy in America. We hope you are excited about the products in our Christmas collection and we personally invite you to join us as we continue to rebuild and recover in 2008.

Thanks for all your support,
The Fenton Family
